

Evaluating Fidelity

Review the implementation plan to assess whether goals and objectives are being accomplished

Create a list of critical features necessary for an intervention to be implemented effectively.

Observe during times when interventions are implemented and check off the critical features observed.

Document the percentage of critical features observed at each observation and create a visual summary.

Review this visual summary on a regular basis during team meetings and provide positive reinforcement for progress being made.