

KIPBS PCP Scoring and Feedback Form

Instructions: Circle the number in the column that best fits your assessment of each item.

1. Ensuring Consumer Involvement	In Place	Partially In Place	Not in Place
The planning is coordinated by person under consideration or their designated individual.	2	1	0
The planning is undertaken with the involvement of the person's circle of support.	2	1	0
The plan is approved in writing by the person or their designee.	2	1	0
2. Understanding Consumer Preferences	In Place	Partially In Place	Not in Place
The plan contains a description of the individual's preferred lifestyle, including:
a) Type of living setting.	2	1	0
b) With whom they want to live.	2	1	0
c) What work or other valued activity the person wants to do.	2	1	0
d) With whom the person wants to socialize.	2	1	0
e) Participate in what social, leisure, religious or other activities.	2	1	0
3. Ensuring Opportunities for Choice	In Place	Partially In Place	Not in Place
The plan describes how opportunities for choice will be provided, including:
a) Permitting the person to indicate preferences among choices using preferred means of communication.	2	1	0
b) Providing necessary support and training to allow the person to be able to indicate their preferences.	2	1	0
c) Assisting the person in understanding the negative consequences of choices and any risks associated with choices.	2	1	0
4. Connecting Actions to Preferred Lifestyles	In Place	Partially In Place	Not in Place
The plan describes the necessary services needed to assist the person to achieve their preferred lifestyle, including:
a) activities,	2	1	0
b) training,	2	1	0
c) materials,	2	1	0
d) equipment, and	2	1	0
e) assistive technology.	2	1	0
The plan describes (when necessary) any limitations due to imminent danger to the person's health, safety, or welfare based on an assessment of the following:
a) The person's history of decision-making.	2	1	0
b) The possible short and long term consequences of a poor decision.	2	1	0
c) The possible short and long term consequences of a provider limiting the choices of the person.	2	1	0
d) The safeguards available to protect the person's safety and rights in each context of choices.	2	1	0
The plan prioritizes and structures services to achieve the person's preferred lifestyle.	2	1	0
The plan contributes to the continuous movement toward the preferred lifestyle.	2	1	0
5. Continuous Evaluation of the Plan	In Place	Partially In Place	Not in Place
Is reviewed regularly and revised taking into account the following:
a) Changes in the person's preferred lifestyle.	2	1	0
b) Achievement of goals or skills outlined in the plan.	2	1	0
c) Any determination that any service or support is unresponsive.	2	1	0

KIPBS PCP Checklist/Locator Sheet (continued)

Instructions: Using the scoring on page 1 of this form as a guide, provide constructive feedback to the professional in each of the following categories.

Ensuring Consumer Involvement
Understanding Consumer Preferences
Ensuring Opportunities for Choice
Connecting Actions to Preferred Lifestyles
Continuous Evaluation of the Plan